

And the winner is...

Jenny Akker Ward Clerk, B7N

I am very pleased to advise that Jenny Akker is the June winner of the Employee of the Month Award.

Jenny has been working at Fremantle Hospital for over 12 years. Previously she worked in B9S and has been the ward clerk in B7N for the past year.

During her time in B7N, Jenny has been described by peers as compassionate towards patients and visitors, a positive role model for staff members and a great representative of Fremantle Hospital.

She is well loved and respected by the nursing staff on B7N and has an excellent working relationship with allied health team members, medical staff and patient support assistants.

Jenny is described by colleagues as being a 'quiet achiever' who performs her duties without prompting. "You will often find that Jenny has completed a task before you even get a chance to ask if she could do it."

"Jenny is a valued asset on B7N and we would be lost without her," a colleague added.

I am sure that all staff will be genuinely pleased that Jenny has been recognised with this fantastic award, please congratulate Jenny next time you see her.

Please continue to nominate lots of deserving colleagues. All nominations are valid for three months. Remember to always use the current nomination form available from the Public Relations Department and the Intranet.
