

And the winner is...

Christopher Gordon CN, V6

I am very pleased to advise that Christopher Gordon is the July winner of the Employee of the Month Award.

Chris began working at Fremantle Hospital in 1994 as a casual call registered nurse. In 1995 he joined the V6 team as a permanent member of staff and within a short period was promoted to clinical nurse. His progression demonstrates Chris's remarkable commitment and outstanding clinical knowledge and skills that he shares with his colleagues.

Of particular note is his passion for, and specialist skills in, the areas of Dermatology and wound care. His commitment to high quality patient care is well known and respected amongst team members.

Chris's motivating and inspiring approach to work makes him a key party to the development and implementation of risk management .

Chris is an excellent role model. Co-workers, patients and relatives have described Chris as a committed and compassionate person. He is a valued team member who shows dedication and enthusiasm to nursing.
