SEPTEMBER WINNER!

I am very pleased to advise that Noel Ridge is the September winner of the Employee of the Month Award.

Noel has been working in health for about 23 years and joined Fremantle Hospital three-and-a-half years ago.

He has been described by colleagues as a valuable and excellent team member with many outstanding qualities. Noel is friendly with an approachable nature. He is dependable, reliable, honest and supportive.

In a short time Noel has developed a significant network of staff at Fremantle Hospital which has provided him with the ability to deliver a quality service.

Noel believes in effective communication and liaises with staff and contractors on a daily basis to ensure everything is running smoothly.

I am sure that all staff will be genuinely pleased that Noel has been recognised with this fantastic award. He has been nicknamed by colleagues as "Chris Judd" because he is everywhere! So next time you see him around the hospital please congratulate him.
